

How the Morning and Afternoon Classes are Chosen?

In order to make kindergarten placement fair and equitable and to balance classes in terms of gender the following process will be followed.

The morning and afternoon classes will be decided directly after the kindergarten class is drawn in the lottery. Boys and girls, 30 students, will be placed in separate buckets. Classes will be drawn alternating between boys and girls until two separate classes of fifteen (15) students are selected.