

Be a Leader

At times when the values
Of others seem hollow,
Make sure that you're ready
To lead and not follow.

It's not easy
To challenge the crowd
Or stick to your views
When opponents are loud;

But sometimes a group
Tends to lose its direction
And goes down a path
That requires correction.

Though opting for change
Leaves you open to scorn,
Don't stand undecided,
Divided or torn.

You're merely respecting
Companions and friends
By searching for wisdom
When common sense ends.

So if your group needs
Better aims to pursue,
Your guidance can furnish
The right thing to do.

When actions of others
Aren't apt to succeed,
Don't give in and follow-
Step forward and lead.
